

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

TRIBUTE TO LEON AND JOYCE HENRY

HON. HENRY C. "HANK" JOHNSON, JR.

OF GEORGIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, July 9, 2012

Mr. JOHNSON of Georgia. Mr. Speaker,

Whereas, Leon and Joyce Henry are celebrating fifty (50) years in marriage today in DeKalb County, Georgia; and

Whereas, on June 18, 1962, because of their union then, our community today has been blessed with a family that has enhanced our district, they both are instruments in our community that uplift the spiritual, physical, economic, and mental welfare of our citizens; and

Whereas, this remarkable and tenacious man of God and this phenomenal and virtuous Proverbs 31 woman have been blessed with a wonderful family: Leon, Jr., Jasmine, Jaden, Shelia, Jaxson, Cheryl, Anthony, Kingston, Brooklyn, Monique, Ebony, Elijah, Amy, TJ, Dion, Nahtiah, and "baby Ava"; and

Whereas, Leon and Joyce Henry are distinguished citizens of our district, they are spiritual warriors, persons of compassion, fearless leaders and servants to all, but most of all visionaries who have shared not only with their family, but with our District their passion to improve the lives of others; and

Whereas, the U.S. Representative of the Fourth District of Georgia has set aside this day to honor and recognize Leon and Joyce Henry as they celebrate their 50th Anniversary, fifty (50) years in marital bliss;

Now therefore, I, HENRY C. "HANK" JOHNSON, Jr., do hereby proclaim June 18th as Leon and Joyce Henry Day in the 4th Congressional District of Georgia.

"WASHINGTON'S MOST WANTED" 300TH FUGITIVE

HON. DAVID G. REICHERT

OF WASHINGTON

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, July 9, 2012

Mr. REICHERT. Mr. Speaker, today I congratulate Q-13 Fox, the Fox network's affiliate in Seattle, and its program "Washington's Most Wanted" for playing an integral role in the capture of 300 fugitives in Washington State and Oregon.

"Washington's Most Wanted" partners with Crime Stoppers of Puget Sound to produce local television alerting viewers to fugitives from justice in their communities, Mr. Speaker, and those communities have responded in a big way: since the show began in November of 2008, viewer tips and the hard work of the law enforcement community has led to 300 criminals—murderers, rapists, unregistered sex offenders, thieves, and burglars—getting off the streets and out of communities.

Mr. Speaker, dynamic and productive partnerships exist between law enforcement, communications professionals, and concerned citizens all over the United States. I'm proud that such a partnership exists in the Northwest, Mr. Speaker, and I applaud Q-13, Crime Stoppers of Puget Sound, the alert and thoughtful citizens of the Northwest, and our brave and dedicated law enforcement officers for staying vigilant in the fight against dangerous fugitives and crime.

I've been fortunate enough to help in this effort to get fugitives out of our communities and the amount of success this effort has had since 2008 is no surprise—hard work and dedication pay off.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. JEFF DENHAM

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, July 9, 2012

Mr. DENHAM. Mr. Speaker, during consideration of H.R. 5972, I inadvertently switched my votes for consecutive amendments. I would like the record to state the following:

Rollcall vote 434: I would like the record to reflect my vote of "aye" was intended to be "no" on Rep. MCCLINTOCK's amendment to zero out funding for the Community Development Fund including the CDBG program and apply the savings to the deficit reduction account.

Rollcall vote 435: I would like the record to reflect my vote of "no" was intended to be "aye" on Rep. MCCLINTOCK's amendment to zero out the funding for the Community Development Loan Guarantees Program Account and apply the savings to the spending reduction account.

HONORING STEPHEN ARTHUR DYMARCIC, SR.

HON. BENJAMIN QUAYLE

OF ARIZONA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, July 9, 2012

Mr. QUAYLE. Mr. Speaker, today, I would like to honor Stephen Arthur Dymarcik, Sr., who honorably served our country in the Army from 1966–1967 in Vietnam. The son of Polish immigrants, his family remembers him as a deeply patriotic and proud American who taught them to be proud of their Polish heritage, while being grateful for the opportunity to live in America. He told his son, "America is the greatest country in the world. We aren't perfect . . . but we are pretty close." Mr. Dymarcik was rated 100 percent service-connected disabled by the Veterans Administration and passed away in August 2003. His loyalty to his country, patriotism and integrity are not forgotten by his family. To Mr. Dymarcik and his family, and to so many others who have honorably served our country, we appreciate your bravery, your service and your sacrifices.

IN RECOGNITION OF THE JAIN CENTER OF NEW JERSEY

HON. FRANK PALLONE, JR.

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, July 9, 2012

Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the Jain Center of New Jersey as its constituents gather to celebrate their newly constructed temple in Franklin Township, New Jersey. Their dedication to further enhance the environment for members of the Jain community is worthy of this body's recognition.

The Jain Center of New Jersey, JCNJ, was founded in 1981 and remains one of the oldest Jain organizations in North America. For thousands of years, Jains have believed in meditation, vegetarianism, environmentalism, equal rights for women, respect for other cultures and forgiveness. The Jain community in New Jersey has continued to grow exponentially and has further developed the need to construct the first all-marble temple in North America. The new temple, constructed with architectural designs from famous temples throughout India, continues to promote the positive themes of truth, non-violence, love, peace and proper conduct. The new worship site will also continue to provide opportunities for members of the community to faithfully commit to the Jain lifestyle that encourages happiness, challenge, discovery and spiritual growth. The construction of the new temple will provide culturally enriching experiences for the community and further disseminate the message of peaceful cooperation amongst others.

Mr. Speaker, once again, please join me in recognizing the Jain Center of New Jersey and congratulating its members on the inauguration of their new temple.

SIMON CALDWELL

HON. SAM GRAVES

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, July 9, 2012

Mr. GRAVES of Missouri. Mr. Speaker, I proudly pause to recognize Simon Caldwell, of Savannah, Missouri, for his admirable leadership and dedication to the community through the Savannah Lions Club. Simon joined the Savannah Lions Club in 2008, where he has served as the third, second, and first vice president before being elected president of the chapter in 2011.

Throughout his terms, Simon has assisted with many projects including hanging flags on holidays, a fishing derby for kids, and serving at fundraiser meals. Simon has also actively
